

Here, you are more than welcome!

It is really worth getting to know our region – a unique fusion of tradition and modern life, at the interface between science and industry.

We want to arouse your interest in our region and show you some of the numerous possibilities South Lower Saxony offers to its visitors.

If there are any questions about the life in our region, you are welcome to ask us...

Where we are...

- in the middle of Germany and Europe
- good infrastructure: every place in Germany can be reached in only 4 hours (by car or by train)
- main location factors:
 - clarity and short ways
 - low crime rate and high safety feeling
 - excellent child care and educational institutions
 - favorable residence offers and fair real estate prices
 - numerous cultural and recreational offerings

Who we are...

We are...

- open to the world
- innovative
- networked
- intelligent
- responsible
- a likeable lot
- pragmatic

Our region is characterized by short distances and high quality. Whether you prefer the centre of a medieval town, the rural area or wish to stay away from the crowd - you decide how you want to live. Housing for families, couples and singles are affordable. You have the choice between a comfortable old building with high ceilings, stucco and parquet flooring, a modern house with all amenities in the development area or a rustic farmhouse in the country.

No matter what you choose – the way to your place of work is generally less than half an hour.

The housing rent:

The price depends on location and equipment.
